

All Africa Indices Deletion of Nigeria Informative Notice

11 September 2023

Further to the 'FTSE/JSE All Africa Index Series – Treatment of Nigeria' notification that was published on 15 August 2023, FTSE Russell announces that following ratification by the FTSE Russell Index Governance Board, Nigeria will be reclassified from Frontier to Unclassified market status within FTSE Russell equity indices, effective from the open on Monday 18 September 2023.

Consequently, the Nigerian index constituents of the FTSE/JSE All Africa Index Series will be deleted at zero value (0.0001 NGN), in conjunction with the September 2023 quarterly review, that is effective from the open on Monday 18 September 2023.

The deletion of Nigeria will be reflected in the FTSE/JSE All Africa Index Series indicative review product files that are scheduled to be published after the close on Friday 08 September 2023.

Please note, that the FTSE/JSE All Africa Index Series ground rules reflecting the deletion of Nigeria and the addition of Ghana and Tanzania as eligible markets will be updated in due course.
