JSE EXCHANGE TEST WEEKEND (ETW) – 12 April 2025

The JSE has planned an Exchange Test Weekend on Saturday, 12 April 2025. This will affect all member firms for JSE EQM, EDM, FXM and Live Information Subscribers to these markets.

The JSE will bring up the Trading System on Saturday, 12 April 2025, for the duration of the day. Clients must ensure that their production systems are shut down prior to the systems start-up (preferably the evening before the scheduled change), to ensure that they do not receive and process any test data.

The JSE appreciates your co-operation in this regard.
