PROVISION OF MISSING SENS ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR SENS END OF DAY PRODUCTS MONDAY, 30 JUNE 2025

The JSE encountered a technical problem on Monday evening that unfortunately impacted the production of the two end of day SENS data product(s) that provide the announcements in text and PDF format.

The product files that were made available that evening unfortunately did not include a small set of announcements which are listed on the next page, and which are available via the attachment.

The JSE apologises for the impact to your operations and the inconvenience to your users of the data by both the late delivery as well as the missing data. As standard, we will examine the circumstances to see how the process can be improved and how to try mitigate this type of issue from happening again.
