EQUITY MARKET PARTICIPANT TEST WEEKEND (PTW) 27 MAY 2017

Clients are reminded that the following weekend, Saturday, 27 May 2017, has been made available as a Participant Test Weekend (PTW) in the production environment.

During this test the JSE Equity Market Trading and Information System will be brought up and test data will be published.

All clients not participating in the PTW are requested to ensure that their Equity Market Trading and Information systems are shut down during the weekend to ensure that they do not receive and process any test messages published during the test.
