DELAY OF THE COMMODITY DERIVATIVES END OF DAY DATA PRODUCTS DISSEMINATION 31 JANUARY 2018

The JSE experienced a delay in finalising End of Day balancing activities on the evening of Wednesday, 31 January 2018. This resulted in the production and dissemination of the Commodity Derivatives file (AD.Zip) being delayed.

The delay was due to a user booking a trade on the incorrect Market. The trade had to be corrected to finalise the End of Day balancing activities.

The JSE apologises for the impact to your operations and the inconvenience to your data users.
