IDP SECURITY CERTIFICATE EXPIRY – EFFECTIVE 27 JANUARY 2017

Clients are advised that the JSE will be renewing the IDP server security certificate, in line with IT Security best practice. The existing server security certificate is expiring on 27 January 2017.

The new security certificate will be implemented on Friday, 27 January 2017 at 04:00 AM post the delivery of the All Africa, International Indices and BDA dissemination files.

Post the implementation clients will be required to accept the new certificate when accessing the IDP service.

Clients are urged to test connectivity to the IDP service during the course of Friday, 27 November 2017.

We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause. If you have any questions regarding this certificate update, please contact the JSE Client Service Centre.
