JSE Equity Market: Customer Test Service (CTS) Availability

Clients are advised that the JSE Equity Market Customer Test Service (CTS), will not be available to clients on Friday, 15 March 2013. The environment closure is necessary due to upgrade activities taking place on the CTS infrastructure and environment.

Following the upgrade on Friday, the CTS environment will be in a maintenance period for the remainder of the weekend, 16 - 17 March 2013. The JSE will bring the environment up during the weekend and will publish test data to CTS clients during this period.

CTS will be available as normal, from Monday, 18 March 2013.

The JSE would like to apologise for any inconvenience caused.
