SUNS CONTRACT EXTENDED PRICE LIMITS – 11 MARCH 2022

We notified clients of the extended price limits not applied to the SUNS contract and advise that we decided against adjusting the limits intra-day to avoid further impact to market participants and other instruments.

The JSE and its Service Provider are conducting a root cause analysis.

In the interim, the JSE will implement the following:

- The Sunflower seeds future contracts will be configured at extended price limits on Monday, 14 March 2022;
- The Sunflower seeds future contracts will be configured at extended price limits on Tuesday, 15 March 2022;
- The Sunflower seeds future contracts price limits will be adjusted on Wednesday, 16 March 2022 in accordance with the price limits rules based on trading activity of the 14 and 15 March 2022.

We will monitor the price limits while we continue our investigations.
