JSE RELEASE 7.7 | MIT UPGRADE 2024 OVERVIEW

This Service Hotline serves as notification of Release 7.7, also referred to as MIT Upgrade 2024, on the JSE client portal for reference.

This next release ensures continuous improvement and stability of the trading system. A summary of enhancements is attached to this Service Hotline. Release 7.7 will also include the introduction of Self-Match Prevention functionality as an optional change and enhances the closing price methodology of instruments in segment ZA04 to mitigate the closing price calculating as zero.

Updated information will be provided regarding deployment into test environments and production go-live dates in due course as well as updated API documentation.

The summary of the release can be found on the JSE Client Portal under the Technical Library here: <https://clientportal.jse.co.za/technical-library/trading-and-market-data-documentation>
