EXCHANGE TEST WEEKEND 23 APRIL 2022

Please note, the JSE has planned an Exchange Test Weekend (ETW) on Saturday, 23 April 2022. This will affect all member firms for EQM, EDM, FXM and Live Information Subscribers to these markets.

The JSE will bring up the Trading System on Saturday, 23 April 2022, for the duration of the day. Clients must ensure that their production systems are shut down prior to the systems start up (preferably the evening before the scheduled change), to ensure that they do not receive and process any test data.

We appreciate your co-operation in this regard.
