JSE EXCHANGE TEST WEEKEND 6 MAY 2023

The JSE has planned an Exchange Test Weekend on Saturday, 6 May 2023. This will affect all member firms for JSE EQM, EDM, FXM and Live Information Subscribers to these markets.

The JSE will bring up the Trading System on Saturday, 6 May 2023, for the duration of the day. Clients must ensure that their production systems are shut down prior to the systems start-up (preferably the evening before the scheduled change), to ensure that they do not receive and process any test data.
