Dear Client

JSE TRADING AND INFORMATION SYSTEM UPGRADE – RELEASE 7.5

Further to Service Hotline 017/2023 published on 10 February 2023, the JSE would like to remind market participants of the MIT release 7.5 to the Equity, Equity Derivative and Currency Derivative Markets.

A reminder, that the functionality is already in the CTS Release environment, and we encourage market participants to participate in testing the new functionality.

The go-live date has been confirmed as Monday, 29 May 2023.

The changes included in this release have no API changes and as such do not require mandatory conformance testing.

This release will include the following as well as some bug fixes:

1. Suspension Across Order Books (impacts all markets)
 - This is new functionality to ensure that the suspension of an instrument from the normal order book cascades to all books
 - Process changes internal to JSE
 - Testing is encouraged
2. Restrictions on User Created Option (Impacts all markets)
 - Not all instruments should have Options traded on them. This functionality will ensure that Options created on instruments are valid before they enter the trading engine
 - Process changes internal to JSE
 - Testing is encouraged
