DECOMMISSIONING OF JSE MONEY MARKET INDEX

The JSE wishes to inform clients of the decommissioning of the JSE Money Market Index, effective on 28 February 2023. The product is currently disseminated via e-mail to subscribers under the name "Money Market Index_YYYYMMDD.xls".

The index was originally introduced as a substitute to the Short-Term Fixed Interest (STeFI) index, however, due to low broad market uptake of the JSE Money Market benchmark, the decision was taken to decommission the product. Please note that the STeFI index will continue to be calculated and published.

The JSE would like to thank users for their continued support.
