

MARKET NOTICE

Number: 259A/2020
Relates to:  Equity Market
 Equity Derivatives
 Commodity Derivatives
 Interest Rate and Currency Derivatives
Date: 19 May 2020
SUBJECT: COVID-19 - UPDATED ESSENTIAL SERVICES

With reference to Market Notice 107/2020, we have updated the JSE's list of accredited entities falling within the category relating to financial services outlined in the Government Notice, published on 25 March 2020, which sets out the list of essential services that, given the nature of their work, are exempt from the lockdown measures.

The list of financial services necessary to maintain the functioning of the JSE (Annexure A) has been amended to include the following:

"Entities listed on the JSE, in respect of capital raising and transactions"

Part F.3 of Table 1 of the Regulations issued in terms of section 27(2) of the Disaster Management Act (29 April 2020) provides "Postal services and courier services for all permitted Alert Level 4 services" are permitted services. Issuers may therefore make use of these services to deliver capital raising and transaction meeting notifications.
