SUBJECT: RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN ORIGINS DELIVERABLE UPON COMPLETION OF AN OILSEED FUTURES CONTRACT

Name and Surname: Anelisa Matutu
Designation: Head – Commodities

Dear Client,

In response to a market request, the JSE supported by the Agricultural Advisory Committee has decided to accept imported sunflower seed (SUNS) for physical delivery in completion of a futures contract. To align with the deliverable maize (WMAZ, YMAZ) and wheat (WEAT) contracts, only specific origins will be accepted. Similarly, the soyabean (SOYA) contract will move away from “any origin” and instead have defined countries of origin accepted for physical delivery. The countries of origin are defined as follows:

Soybeans	Sunflower Seeds
Argentina	Argentina
Brazil	European Union
Malawi	Russia
United States of America	Ukraine
Zambia

The origins mentioned above will trade at a zero-origin discount. We encourage market participants to consider the above and provide feedback by Friday, 23 September 2022. Following that, the contract specifications will be updated for the 2023 marketing season.
