27.	Day Count Fraction:	Actual/365
28.	Effect of a Credit Event	If an Early Redemption Event occurs and the Conditions to Settlement are satisfied, the Issuer's obligation to redeem the Notes at the Scheduled Redemption Amount shall cease and be replaced by an obligation to redeem the Notes on the Early Redemption Date by payment of the Cash Settlement Amount less (without duplication) Breakage Costs plus or minus (as applicable) the US Treasury Adjustment Amount. Upon discharge by the Issuer of such payment on the Early Redemption Date, or otherwise as provided herein, the Issuer's obligations in respect of the Note shall be discharged.
		Where:
		"US Treasury Adjustment Amount" means, an amount determined by the Calculation Agent as the market observable costs incurred or gains realised by or on behalf of the Issuer as a result of it closing out its US Treasury hedge position in respect of the Notes. The US Treasury hedge position will be determined as the price of the T 2.5 06/30/17 bond on the Cash Settlement Date less the price of the T 2.5 06/30/17 bond (or the relevant substitute US Treasury benchmark bond) on Issue date) x Quanto Ratio x the outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount. The US Treasury hedge will be the relevant benchmark for the Reference Obligation, which on Issue Date, is the US Treasury "T 2.5 06/30/17" bond. If the relevant benchmark changes the Calculation Agent will, in a commercially reasonable manner, choose a relevant substitute US Treasury benchmark bond to replace the US Treasury hedge position.
		"Breakage Costs" means, in respect of the Notes, an amount determined by the Calculation Agent as half the market observable bid-offer spread for the Issuer's funding (for the remaining term to the Scheduled Redemption Date of the Notes) x by the outstanding Aggregate Principal Amount x the duration (which will be determined with reference to the remaining term to the Scheduled Redemption Date of the Notes). For purposes of clarity, the market observable bid-offer spread is defined as the Issuer funding spread as reported on Reuters.

		If some or all of the Specified Reference Obligation is redeemed prior to its scheduled maturity date set forth in the Specified Reference Obligation's offering memorandum dated 22 July 2010 (the "Specified Reference Obligation OC") for the circumstances described under "Optional Redemption", "Optional Tax Redemption" and "Change of Control" (each as described in the Specified Reference Obligation's OC), the Issuer has the right, but not the obligation, to redeem each Note in whole and not in part (for the avoidance of doubt, this means the issuer may redeem all or some of the Notes then outstanding in accordance with Condition 7.2) by payment of the Optional Early Redemption Amount on the Optional Early Redemption Date specified in the notice of Optional Early Redemption by the Issuer whereupon the Issuer will be released from its future obligations with respect to each Note so redeemed. Optional Early Redemption Date(s): A date determined by the Calculation Agent falling within 30 days of early redemption date of the Specified Reference Obligation pursuant to the terms described in Optional Early Redemption above. Optional Early Redemption Amount(s) and With respect to each Note, the Optional Early method, if any, of calculation of such amount: Redemption Amount will be equal to the principal amount of each Note multiplied by the percentage (determined by the Calculation Agent as the redemption price (expressed as a percentage of par) actually received by a holder of a single note of the Specified Reference Obligation) plus interest accrued at a rate equal to the sum of the Reference Rate and the Margin, in respect of the period from and including the preceding Interest Payment Date (or if no Interest Payment Date has occurred, the Issue Date) until the Optional Early Redemption Date; less all costs, losses and expenses and any Local Market Expenses which are incurred (or expected to be incurred) by (or on behalf of) the Issuer in connection with the early redemption of the Notes. includina (without duplication or limitation) Quanto Costs, Breakage Costs and plus or minus (as applicable) the US Treasury Adjustment Amount. Where: "Local Market Expenses" means, where applicable, all costs, charges, fees, accruals, withholdings and expenses incurred in the local market of the Reference Obligation. "Quanto Costs" means, in respect of the Notes, an amount determined by the Calculation Agent in a commercially reasonable manner as (1 - Quanto Ratio) multiplied by the Excess Recovery Amount. This will entail the Calculation Agent conducting a dealer poll, which will be disclosed to the client. \

Where:

"Quanto Ratio" means the arithmetic mean of the quanto hedge costs as determined by the Calculation

Agent through a Dealer poll consisting of quotes from at least three Dealers, as selected by the Calculation Agent. The Quanto Ratio can never be greater than 100%.

"Excess Recovery Amount" means (the percentage, determined by the Calculation Agent as the redemption price (expressed as a percentage of par) actually received by a holder of a single note of the Specified Reference Obligation - Issue Price) * Principal Amount. Where the percentage, determined by the Calculation Agent as the redemption price (expressed as a percentage of par) actually received by a holder of a single note of the Specified Reference Obligation is less than the Issue Price the Excess Recovery Amount defaults to zero.

32. Optional Early Redemption by Noteholders:

Applicable

- If there is a "Change of Control" (as described in the Specified Reference Obligation's OC), the Noteholder has the right, but not the obligation. to require the Issuer to redeem each Note in whole and not in part (for the avoidance of doubt. this means the issuer may redeem all or some of the Notes then outstanding in accordance with Condition 7.3) by payment of the Optional Early Redemption Amount, as defined above, on the Optional Early Redemption Date specified in the notice of Optional Early Redemption by the Noteholder whereupon the Issuer will be released from its future obligations with respect to each Note so redeemed. This redemption right must be exercised at least 10 Business Days before the Change of Control Payment Date as defined in the Specified Reference Obligation's memorandum dated 22 July 2010 (the "Specified Reference Obligation OC")
- 2. If a Succession Event (as defined in the Programme Memorandum and for avoidance of doubt a name change of the Reference Entity will not constitute a Succession Event) occurs, as determined by the Calculation Agent in a commercially reasonable manner in consultation with the Noteholder, the Noteholder has the right, but not the obligation, to require the Issuer to redeem each Note in whole and not in part (for the avoidance of doubt, this means the issuer may redeem all or some of the Notes then outstanding in accordance with Condition 7.3) by payment of the Succession Event Optional Early Redemption Amount, as defined below, on the Succession Event Optional Early Redemption Date specified in the Put Notice, whereupon the Issuer will be released from its future obligations with respect to each Note so redeemed. The Calculation Agent will be responsible for determining, (in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Programme) as soon as reasonably practicable after it becomes aware of a Succession Event and/or Change of Control. whether a Succession Event and/or Change of Control has occurred or not, if it determines in good faith that a Succession Event and/or Change of Control has occurred, it will notify the Noteholder in writing thereof within 5 Business Days of such determination. Succession Event Optional Early Redemption A date determined by the Calculation Agent falling Date(s): within 30 days of the Calculation Agent's notification of the occurrence of the relevant Succession Event as described above. Succession Event Optional Early Redemption An amount determined by the Calculation Agent in a Amount(s)/Tax Redemption Amount(s) and commercially reasonable manner as the then market method, if any, of calculation of such amount: value of the Notes (being derived directly from the Market Value (with the Calculation Agent to determine the relevant Valuation Date) of the Reference Obligation as described in the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes set out in the Programme Memorandum), plus interest accrued at a rate equal to the sum of the Reference Rate and the Margin, in respect of the period from and including the preceding Interest Payment Date (or if no Interest Payment Date has occurred, the Issue Date) until the Succession Event Optional Early Redemption Date or the Tax Redemption Date (as applicable; less all costs, losses and expenses and any Local Market Expenses which are incurred (or expected to be incurred) by (or on behalf of) the Issuer in connection with the early redemption or cancellation of the Notes, including (without duplication or limitation) Quanto Costs, Breakage Costs and plus or minus (as applicable) the US Treasury Adjustment Amount. 33. Default Redemption Amount An amount determined by the Calculation Agent in a commercially reasonable manner as the then market value of the Notes (being derived directly from the Market Value (with the Calculation Agent to determine the relevant Valuation Date) of the Reference Obligation as described in the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes set out in the Programme Memorandum) less, all costs, losses and expenses and any Local Market Expenses which are incurred (or expected to be incurred) by (or on behalf of) the Issuer in connection with the early redemption or cancellation of the Notes, including (without duplication or limitation) Quanto Costs, Breakage Costs and plus or minus (as applicable) the US Treasury Adjustment Amount.
