- 5.2 The Issuer may realise a portion of the Participating Assets in order to pay any Instalment Amount on an Instalment Date, on written notice by the Notes Calculation Agent to the Administrator, the Series Security Trust, the Series Noteholders and the Hedge Counterparty setting out the details of the Participating Assets to be realised, which Participating Assets will have an aggregate outstanding nominal amount equal to the relevant Instalment Amount, less any Series Transaction Monies and Permitted Investments available to pay the Instalment Amount, and rounded up to the nearest specified domination of such Participating Assets (Relevant Participating Assets). Upon receipt of such notice, the Administrator will arrange for, and administer the sale of the Relevant Participating Assets in accordance with paragraph 8 below, subject to the provisions of the Trust Deed and the Administration Agreement.
- 5.3 The amount payable to Noteholders in respect of the relevant Instalment Amount will be limited to the their pro rata share of the net proceeds of the realisation of the Relevant Participating Assets, plus any Series Transaction Monies and Permitted Investments, less any costs and expenses which may be incurred by or on behalf of the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Trustee, including taxes and other charges in connection with the delivery or sale of the Relevant Participating Assets after all payments (including any amounts due to the Hedge Counterparty) have been made in accordance with the applicable Series Priority of Payments (Note Instalment Proceeds).

6. Realisation of Participating Assets and Limited Recourse

- 6.1 The provisions of Condition 5, as supplemented by the provisions of this paragraph 6, will apply to the Series Transaction.
- 6.2 In the event that the Participating Assets are realised in accordance with paragraph 8 below, recourse in respect of the Series Transaction will be limited to the relevant Realisation Amount.
- 6.3 If the Realisation Amount is not sufficient to make all relevant payments due in connection with the Series Transaction after application thereof in accordance with the applicable Series Priority of Payments, the obligations of the Issuer in respect of such payments will be limited to such Realisation Amount. Other assets of the Issuer will not be available to satisfy any claims for such payments. Any shortfall between the relevant Realisation Amount and the aggregate of payments then due by the Issuer in connection with the Series Transaction shall be borne by each of the Secured Series Creditors in accordance with the Series Priority of Payments.
- 6.4 The amount due (if any) to the Hedging Counterparty as a result of the termination (in whole or in part as the case may be) of the Hedging Transaction(s) will be payable by the Issuer to the Hedge Counterparty in accordance with the terms of the Hedging Transaction(s) and as set out in the Series Priority of Payments.
- 6.5 The Series Noteholders agree that their rights under the Notes on redemption of the Notes shall be limited to their pro rata share of any applicable Realisation Amount which is payable to holders of the Notes, after all payments (including any amounts due to the Hedge Counterparty) have been made in accordance with the applicable Series Priority of Payments (the Note Realisation Amount).

- 6.6 If the Notes become redeemable in full in accordance with paragraphs 2, 3 or 4, upon payment of the Early Redemption Amount, the Issuer shall have discharged its obligations in respect of such Note and shall have no other liability or obligation whatsoever in respect thereof. The Early Redemption Amount, may be less than the Principal Amount Outstanding in respect of a Note, and any Principal Amount Outstanding remaining after the payment of the Early Redemption Amount, shall be reduced to zero and the Notes shall be cancelled as fully redeemed in accordance with Condition 9.7. Any shortfall will be borne by the Series Noteholders and no liability will attach to the Issuer.
- 6.7 If the Notes become redeemable in part in accordance with paragraph 2, upon payment of the Early Redemption Amount, the Issuer shall have discharged its obligations in respect of the Partial Redemption Amount and shall have no other liability or obligation whatsoever in respect thereof. The Early Redemption Amount may be less than the principal amount in respect of the Partial Redemption Amount. Any shortfall will be borne by the Series Noteholders and no liability will attach to the Issuer.
- 6.8 If the Participating Assets are realised pursuant to paragraph 5 above, upon payment of:
- (a) the Final Redemption Amount, the Issuer shall have discharged its obligations in respect of such Note and shall have no other liability or obligation whatsoever in respect thereof. The Final Redemption Amount may be less than the Principal Amount Outstanding and accrued interest (if any) in respect of a Note and any Principal Amount Outstanding remaining after the payment of the Final Redemption Amount shall be reduced to zero and the Notes shall be cancelled as fully redeemed in accordance with Condition 9.7. Any shortfall will be borne by the Series Noteholders and no liability will attach to the Issuer; or
 - (b) the Note Instalment Proceeds, the Issuer shall have discharged its obligations in respect of the relevant Instalment Amount and shall have no other liability or obligation whatsoever in respect thereof. The Note Instalment Proceeds may be less than the Instalment Amount. Any shortfall will be borne by the Series Noteholders and no liability will attach to the Issuer.

7. Issuer Programme Events of Default

Condition 13.1.1 is amended by the inclusion of the words "or a Hedging Agreement Termination Redemption Event or a Minimum Value Trigger Event" after the words "Non-Performing Asset Trigger Event" in the second line thereof.

8. Realisation of Participating Assets

- 8.1 Upon (i) receipt by the Issuer of a Non-Performing Asset Trigger Notice, a Hedging Agreement Termination Redemption Event Notice, a notice as contemplated in paragraphs 5.1 or 5.2 or (ii) the issue of a Call Notice by the Issuer (in each case, the Notice Date) the Issuer, with the assistance of the Administrator, will be required to realise some or all of the Participating

Assets, and such Participating Assets will be deemed to be released from the operation of the Series Security.

- 8.2 In arranging for the sale of Participating Assets, the Administrator, in consultation with the Notes Calculation Agent, shall seek firm bid quotations from three (3) Relevant Dealers, as soon as reasonably practicable following the Notice Date, for the sale of an amount of Participating Assets (or part thereof, as the case may be) with a principal amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Participating Assets being sold by the Issuer, such sale to be settled for value on the date falling no later than 10 (ten) Business Days after the Notice Date (the Value Date) (each an Eligible Quotation). Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 8.3 and 8.4, if the Administrator receives one or more full quotations for the purchase of the relevant Participating Assets, the Administrator shall effect the sale of the Participating Assets to the Relevant Dealer who has provided the highest Eligible Quotation. If the Administrator does not receive any Eligible Quotations, the Notes Calculation Agent may instruct the Administrator to sell the Participating Assets as one single tranche or in smaller tranches as the Notes Calculation Agent considers appropriate in its sole discretion in order to attempt reasonably to maximise the proceeds from such sale, subject to paragraph 8.3 below.
- 8.3 If any amount remains due in accordance with the Series Priority of Payments to the Hedging Counterparty as a result of the termination (in whole or in part as the case may be) of the Hedging Transaction (Outstanding Hedge Termination Amount) and the Notes Calculation Agent determines that the Realisation Proceeds would, after taking into account any costs and expenses which may be incurred by or on behalf of the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Trustee, including taxes and other charges in connection with the sale of the Participating Asset, and after application of the Realisation Proceeds in accordance with the Series Priority of Payments, be insufficient to settle the Outstanding Hedge Termination Amount in full, then the Participating Assets will not be sold, and the provisions of paragraph 8.5(a) will apply.
- 8.4 The Series Noteholder(s) shall be entitled, but not obliged, by written notice to the Administrator no later than 17h00 on the Business Day immediately following the Notice Date, to request the Administrator to provide the Series Noteholder(s) with information relating to the status of the realisation of the Participating Assets, including, but not limited to the highest bid quotation received (if any), and whether or not the provisions of paragraph 8.5 are likely to apply. If written notice is delivered to the Administrator by the Series Noteholder(s) in accordance with this paragraph 8.4:
- (a) the Administrator will provide the required information by no later than 17h00 on the date falling 2 (two) Business Days after the Notice Date; and
 - (b) the relevant Series Noteholder(s) will be given the opportunity to submit a firm bid quotation for the Participating Assets.

If no firm bid that constitutes an Eligible Quotation is received from the relevant Series Noteholder(s) by 16h00 on the date falling 3 (three) Business Days after the Notice Date, or if such firm bid would nonetheless result in paragraph 8.5(a) being applicable pursuant to paragraph 8.3, the Administrator will forthwith give effect to the sale of the Participating Assets pursuant to paragraph 8.2 or the delivery of the Participating Assets to the Hedge Counterparty pursuant to paragraph 8.5(a), as the case may be.

8.5 If the Administrator is unable to sell some or all of the Participating Assets (Affected Participating Assets) on or before the Value Date in accordance with paragraph 8.2 above, or if the provisions of paragraph 8.3 apply, the Issuer, assisted by Administrator, shall, within 3 (three) Business Days of the Value Date, take all reasonable steps as may be necessary to procure that the Affected Participating Assets are transferred and delivered to:

- (a) the Hedge Counterparty, or its appointed nominee, in the event that any amount remains due in accordance with the Series Priority of Payments to the Hedging Counterparty as a result of the termination (in whole or in part as the case may be) of the Hedging Transaction(s); or
- (b) to the Series Noteholders, or its/their appointed nominee, in the event that no amount remains due in accordance with the Series Priority of Payments to the Hedging Counterparty as a result of the termination (in whole or in part as the case may be) of the Hedging Transaction(s)

8.6 Upon delivery to the:

- (a) Hedge Counterparty as contemplated in paragraph 8.5(a) above, the Hedge Counterparty's claims under the Series Transaction will be deemed to have been settled in full, the Principal Amount Outstanding of the Notes shall be reduced to zero and the Notes shall be cancelled as fully redeemed in accordance with Condition 9.7; or
- (b) Series Noteholders as contemplated in paragraph 8.5(b) above, the Series Noteholders claims under the Notes shall be deemed to have been settled in full and the Notes shall be cancelled as fully redeemed in accordance with Condition 9.7.

9. Interest

No interest shall be payable (and accordingly will be deemed not to have accrued) in respect of any Interest Period in respect of which the relevant Interest Payment Date has not occurred on or prior to receipt by the Issuer of a Non-Performing Asset Trigger Notice or a Hedging Agreement Termination Redemption Event Notice, (the Relevant Notice Date), and if the Relevant Notice Date falls prior to the first Interest Payment Date, no interest shall accrue on the Notes. Interest on the Notes will cease to accrue from the Scheduled Maturity Date, notwithstanding the date on which the Notes are actually redeemed.

10. Notes Calculation Agent

10.1 Whenever the Notes Calculation Agent is required to act or to exercise judgment, it will do so in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.

10.2 The Notes Calculation Agent shall be responsible for making all relevant determinations as set out in this Applicable Pricing Supplement. The determination by the Notes Calculation Agent of any amount or of any state of affairs, circumstance, event or other matter, or the formation of any opinion or the exercise of any discretion required or permitted to be determined, formed or exercised by the Notes Calculation Agent pursuant to this Applicable Pricing Supplement shall

(in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding on the Issuer, the Administrator, the Series Security Trust and the Series Noteholders.

- 10.3 Neither the Notes Calculation Agent nor the Issuer shall have any responsibility to the Series Noteholders or any other Series Secured Creditor for good faith errors or omissions in the Notes Calculation Agent's calculations and determinations as provided in this Applicable Pricing Supplement, as the case may be, whether caused by negligence or otherwise.
- 10.4 Any delay, deferral or forbearance by the Notes Calculation Agent in the performance or exercise of any of its obligations or discretions including, without limitation, the giving of any notice to any person, shall not affect the validity or binding nature of or any later performance or exercise of such obligation or discretion, and neither the Notes Calculation Agent nor the Issuer shall, in the absence of wilful misconduct or gross negligence, bear any liability in respect of, or consequent upon, any such delay, deferral or forbearance.

ADDITIONAL RISK FACTORS

Investor suitability

Prospective investors who consider purchasing the Notes should reach an investment decision only after carefully considering the suitability of the Notes in light of their particular circumstances. Investment in the Notes may only be suitable for investors who:

- have substantial knowledge and experience in financial, business matters and expertise in assessing credit risk which enable them to evaluate the merits and risks of an investment in the Notes and the rights attaching to the Notes;
- are capable of bearing the economic risk of an investment in the Notes for an indefinite period of time;
- recognise that it may not be possible to make any transfer of the Notes for a substantial period of time, if at all.

Independent review and advice

Each prospective investor in the Notes must determine, based on its own independent review (including as to the financial condition and affairs and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of the Issuer, the Hedge Counterparty and any relevant obligor in respect of the Participating Assets and such professional advice (including, without limitation, tax, accounting, credit, legal and regulatory advice) as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, to assess the economic, social and political condition of the jurisdiction in which each relevant obligor is located and determine whether an investment in the Notes is appropriate in its particular circumstances.

Credit risk

The ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations under the Notes will be dependent, where applicable, upon:

- the payment of principal and interest (if applicable) due on the Participating Assets;
- the payment of all sums due to or from the relevant Hedge Counterparty under the Hedging Agreement;
- all parties to the Series Transaction Documents (other than the Issuer) performing their respective obligations thereunder.

Moreover, the security for the Notes will be limited to the proceeds of realisation of the Participating Assets, subject to the order of priority under the terms of the Notes. The Issuer is also exposed to the credit risk of the Hedge Counterparty. If the Hedge Counterparty fails to perform its obligations under the Hedging Agreement, the Issuer may be unable to meet its obligations under the Notes, including any payments on the Notes.

Accordingly, Series Noteholders are exposed, inter alia, to the creditworthiness of the issuer(s) in respect of the Participating Assets, the Hedge Counterparty and the Administrator. Consequently, the Issuer may be unable to fully recover the necessary funds in a timely fashion to fulfil its payment obligations under the Notes. If such funds are insufficient to meet the Issuer's payment obligations, such insufficiency will be borne by the Series Noteholders.

Minimum Value Trigger Event

The Minimum Value Trigger Event entitles the Issuer to redeem the Notes early if the sum of the value of the Participating Assets and the Hedging Transactions, which may, in certain market conditions, be volatile, falls below a certain Minimum Value specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement. It may therefore occur that at the time that the Minimum Value Trigger Event is exercised market conditions have changed, or market conditions change shortly thereafter, such that the value of the Participating Asset would no longer have been below the Minimum Value.

The Minimum Value Trigger Event has been inserted for the benefit of the Issuer and accordingly is not intended to be an implied guarantee or assurance of a minimum return on the Notes, nor is the Issuer under any obligation to exercise its right to redeem the Notes early in the event that the Minimum Value Trigger Event occurs. Accordingly, any Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of the Notes may be less than the stipulated Minimum Value. The determination of whether or not the Minimum Value has been breached is based on the Notes Calculation Agent's estimates of the sum of the value of the Participating Assets and the Hedging Transactions, and accordingly the Early Redemption Amount payable to Noteholders following delivery of the Call Notice may differ from such estimates. In addition, due to the volatility of the Participating Assets, the value of the Participating Assets may fluctuate between the time at which the Minimum Value is first breached and the date on which the Notes are to be redeemed, which may result in an Early Redemption Amount lower than the Minimum Value.

Determinations as Hedge Counterparty, Calculation Agent and Notes Calculation Agent

SBSA acts as Notes Calculation Agent for the Notes. SBSA may also act as Hedge Counterparty for the Notes, in which case, SBSA will act as Calculation Agent for the Hedging Transaction(s). In any such capacity, SBSA will calculate amounts payable and make other determinations that may be material to investors in the Notes. The manner in which SBSA makes such determinations or otherwise exercises its discretion may adversely affect investors in the Notes and, conversely, may positively affect the Issuer or other participants in the transaction.

Secondary market

An active secondary market in respect of the Notes may never be established or may be illiquid and this would adversely affect the value at which an investor could sell his Notes.

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market does develop, it may not be very liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities. Illiquidity may have a severely adverse effect on the market value of Notes.

The value of the Participating Assets upon redemption may negatively impact the possible return on the Notes

To the extent that a default occurs with respect to any Participating Asset securing the Notes, or the Participating Assets are realised pursuant to an early redemption of the Notes or due to a mismatch in payment date under the Notes and the date on which the Issuer is due to receive payment under the Participating Assets and/or Hedging Transaction(s), and the Administrator sells or otherwise disposes of such Participating Asset, this will negatively impact the possible return on the Notes. Even in the absence of a default or sale with respect to any of the Participating Assets securing the Notes, due to potential market volatility, the market value of such Participating Assets at any time will vary, and may vary substantially, from the price at which such Participating Assets were initially purchased and from the principal amount of such Participating Assets. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the amount of proceeds of any sale or disposition, or the amount received or recovered upon maturity, of such Participating Assets securing any Notes, or that the proceeds of any such sale or disposition would provide the expected or any return on the Notes. In the event of an insolvency of an issuer of the Participating Assets, various insolvency and related laws applicable to such issuer may limit the amount the Administrator may recover.

Notes Calculation Agent and Calculation Agent Determinations

The terms of the Notes confer on the Notes Calculation Agent certain discretions in making determinations and calculations in relation to, inter alia, Participating Assets, and the occurrence of various events. The Notes Calculation Agent will act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, and there can be no assurance that the exercise of any such discretion will not affect the value of the Notes or the occurrence of an early redemption or the amount payable or deliverable in connection therewith.

The terms of the Hedging Transaction(s) confer on the Calculation Agent certain discretions in making determinations and calculations in relation to, the Hedging Transactions and the occurrence of various events. The Calculation Agent will act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, and there can be no assurance that the exercise of any such discretion will not affect the value of the Notes or the occurrence of an early redemption or the amount payable or deliverable in connection therewith.

No obligations owing by the Notes Calculation Agent or Calculation Agent

Neither the Notes Calculation Agent nor the Calculation Agent shall have any obligations to the Series Noteholders, and shall only have the obligations expressed to be binding on it specified in the Applicable Pricing Supplement or Hedging Agreement. All designations and calculations made by the Notes Calculation Agent in respect of any Notes shall be conclusive and binding on the Series Noteholders. All designations and calculations made by the Calculation Agent in respect of any Hedging Transaction shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer.

Limited recourse and shortfall on enforcement and realisation of Secured Property

The right of Series Noteholders to participate in the assets of the Issuer is limited to the Series Assets.

If such Series Assets and the proceeds of enforcement and/or realisation thereof, as applicable, are not sufficient to make all payments and deliveries, as applicable, due in respect of the Notes, then the obligations of the Issuer in respect of the Notes will be limited to the Series Assets. The Issuer will not be obliged to make any further payment or delivery, as applicable, for any Notes in excess thereof.

Following application of the relevant Series Assets and the proceeds of enforcement and/or realisation thereof, as applicable, in accordance with the Conditions, the claims of the relevant Series Noteholders and the relevant Hedge Counterparty and any other Secured Party of the relevant Notes for any shortfall shall be extinguished and may not take any further action to recover such shortfall. Such parties may not petition for the winding-up, the liquidation or the bankruptcy of the relevant Issuer or any other similar insolvency related proceedings. Failure to make any payment or delivery, as applicable, in respect of any such shortfall shall in no circumstances constitute an event of default under the Conditions.

The Hedging Agreement

The ability of the Issuer to make payments on the Notes will depend on the performance by the Hedge Counterparty of its obligations under the Hedging Agreement. Performance by the Hedge Counterparty is in turn dependent on performance by the Issuer of its obligations under the Hedging Agreement. The Issuer's ability to perform its obligations under the Hedging Agreement and the Notes depends on receipt of the scheduled payments under the Participating Assets and the timely realisation of such Participating Assets where required.

In the event that the Hedging Agreement is terminated early (for whatever reason), the Notes will be redeemed early and the Early Redemption Amount received by the Series Noteholders may be less than the amount initially invested and could be zero. In that event, Series Noteholders will not have any further rights or claims against or to the assets of the Issuer beyond their pro rata entitlement to amounts received by such Issuer as a result of enforcement of the security. Any Early Redemption Amount received by Series Noteholders will be paid in accordance with the applicable order of priority and the limited recourse provisions. Claims of Noteholders in respect of the Notes will rank behind the claims of the Hedge Counterparty under the Hedging Agreement.

Early redemption of the Notes

The Notes may be redeemed early in accordance with their terms in a number of different circumstances (for example, following certain events affecting the Participating Assets, termination of the Hedging Agreement, the occurrence of certain regulatory or tax events, or if the Issuer exercises its option to redeem the Notes). No Interest will be paid or deemed to accrue in respect of Interest Periods, to the extent that the relevant Interest Payment Date in respect of such Interest Periods has not occurred on or before the date on which notice is provided of the occurrence of certain specified events.

If the Notes are redeemed early an investor may not be able to reinvest their redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

In addition, where the Notes are redeemed early, the relevant Issuer may owe the Hedge Counterparty certain amounts on the related termination of the Hedging Agreement and these amounts may be deducted from the amounts or assets, as applicable, otherwise due to investors on such early redemption.

The Participating Assets

The Participating Assets may comprise (i) debt securities of any sovereign, or (ii) debt securities of any corporate entity which are listed on a regulated market.

Series Noteholders will assume the full credit risk of any obligor of the Participating Assets and the value of, or payments made by the relevant obligor under, any Participating Assets may have a direct impact on the amounts payable to Series Noteholders in respect of the Notes. Prospective investors are advised to carefully review the offering documents for the Participating Assets before deciding whether an investment in the Notes is suitable for them.

Realisation risk

Market volatility may lead the market value of Participating Assets at any time to vary, and the market value may vary substantially, from the price at which such Participating Assets were initially purchased and the principal amount of such Participating Assets. To the extent that the Administrator sells or otherwise disposes of Participating Assets it is likely that the proceeds of such sale or disposition will be less than the outstanding obligations in respect of the relevant Notes. In addition, the Participating Assets may be illiquid and not readily realisable. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the amount of the proceeds of any such sale or disposition, or the amount received or recovered upon maturity or early redemption of, the Participating Assets in respect of the Notes would be sufficient to repay principal and/or interest on the Notes. In the event of an insolvency of an issuer of the Participating Assets, various insolvency and related laws applicable to such issuer may limit the amount the Administrator may recover.

The market price of the Participation Assets will generally fluctuate. The Issuer may have to fund payments due in connection with the Notes and the Hedging Agreement by selling Participating Assets at their market value.

Negative Interest

To the extent that the Interest Rate is less than zero (i.e. negative), the terms of the Hedging Agreement will provide that the Issuer will be obliged to pay the Hedge Counterparty an amount equal to the sum of the negative interest applicable to each Interest Period in which the Interest Rate is determined to be negative plus the Hedge Counterparty's cost of funding of each such negative interest amount. Claims of Noteholders in respect of the Notes will rank behind the claims of the Hedge Counterparty under the Hedging Agreement. The amount, if any, payable to the Series Noteholders on redemption of the Notes will be paid in accordance with the applicable order of priority and the limited recourse provisions, and will accordingly be reduced by any such amount due to the Hedge Counterparty.
