“FX Disruption” means the occurrence of any event after the Issue Date that prevents the Issuer or any affiliate of the Issuer (the “Hedging Party”), after applying commercially reasonable efforts, to:

- (i) transfer, on or in respect of a valuation date, a payment date, an early termination date or the Maturity Date, through customary legal channels the proceeds of its Hedge Positions denominated in the settlement currency from accounts within the jurisdictions to which the Hedge Positions relate (each such jurisdiction, an affected jurisdiction) to (a) accounts outside such affected jurisdiction, (b) other accounts within such affected jurisdiction or (c) the accounts of a non- resident of such affected jurisdiction;
- (ii) transfer, on or in respect of a valuation date, a payment date, early termination date or the Maturity Date, through customary legal channels the proceeds of its

- (iii) convert the proceeds of its Hedge Positions denominated in the local currency into the settlement currency on or in respect of a valuation date, a payment date, early termination date or the Maturity Date through customary legal channels;
- (iv) convert the proceeds of its Hedge Positions denominated in the local currency into the settlement currency on or in respect of a valuation date, a payment date, an early termination date or the Maturity Date at a rate at least as favourable as the rate for domestic institutions located in the affected jurisdiction; or

Upon the occurrence of an FX Disruption, the Issuer may give notice to the Note Holder that an FX Disruption has occurred whereupon the Issuer will determine to either:

The Issuer will determine the relevant exchange rate as soon as reasonably practicable after taking into consideration all available information that it determines relevant, including any published official or industry-consensus rate of exchange; provided, however, that in anticipation of the cessation of the FX Disruption, the Issuer may postpone the determination of the exchange rate to such time as
